

You and the Dealer and the "Triangle A"

How many times have you been the victim of bad cigars? You didn't feel like buying from that dealer again, did you?

Now that is precisely where both you and the dealer got the small end of the bargain.

You got it in a bad cigar.
He got it in the loss of your trade.
It served you both right.

When you learn to demand and get "Triangle A" cigars, it will be better for both you and the dealer.

You'll get the acme of cigar quality in the "Triangle A" brands, and the dealer who sells them will hold your trade always.

There is one right way to buy cigars. Look for the "A" (Triangle A) on the cigar box every time you buy.

There is no other way to get as good value as you are entitled to.

This "Triangle A" merit mark identifies the product of the most modern improved methods and scientific processes of cigar production, and represents a standard of quality far superior to those cigars not marked with "A" (Triangle A).

The New CREMO

is first-class evidence of the quality that is guaranteed by the "Triangle A."

Every box is extra-wrapped in glassine paper, sealed to maintain perfect smoking condition and cleanliness until the box is opened.

NEGRO GIVES NEW VERSION OF THE BROWNSVILLE AFFAIR

He Tells His Story in Such a Way That it is Believed and the Officers Decide to Begin an Investigation—He Says he was Mixed up in the Shooting.

Galveston, Tex., March 18.—A sensation has been caused here by the story of a discharged negro soldier who tells what he claims was the real cause of the riot in which Brownsville, Tex., was "shot up" on Aug. 13, 1935.

This soldier, who says he was a member of the Twenty-fifth infantry, gave to two reporters what, after seven months of investigation by the authorities of the United States, appears to be the true version of the riot. The discharged soldier admits that he participated in the riot. This man has been living in Galveston since he and many others of the Twenty-fifth infantry were discharged without honor by order of President Roosevelt from the military service.

According to the statement made by the reporters, the outrage was not premeditated, but was the result of an alleged injury done one of the soldiers by a white man in Brownsville about a half hour before the riot started. The negro, the story says, was struck by the white man at a resort in Brownsville. The negro returned to the barracks, seized his rifle and announced that he was going to kill the white man. Several other negroes promptly volunteered to go along to wipe out old scores against white citizens on account of injuries they had suffered.

The negroes returned to the barracks after committing the assault on the town and many soldiers assisted in the hurried cleaning of the guns for the inspection which followed soon after the shooting ceased. According to the alleged confession, the soldiers from only one company of the Twenty-fifth infantry participated in the riot, although nearly an entire battalion later discharged, knew that soldiers had done the shooting.

Many of the negroes belonging to this battalion enlisted in Galveston during the summer of 1935 and returned to the city after being discharged from the army. The returned soldiers, it is said, were advised by negro politicians to avoid newspaper men, but two reporters finally procured the alleged confession through the fact that the negro concluded that they were United States secret service detectives and let the secret out.

The man who talked to the reporters said his name was D. C. Gray, and that he was formerly a private in Co. B of the Twenty-fifth infantry.

Washington, March 18.—Senator Overman of North Carolina, who is a member of the committee on military affairs which is investigating the "shooting up" of Brownsville, Tex., when shown the dispatch from Galveston telling of the alleged confession of a discharged negro soldier, said that the committee received information two weeks ago that a former member of the Twenty-fifth infantry had expressed a willingness to make a confession if he could receive some assurance from the government that he would be protected.

Senator Overman said that this information was forwarded to Secretary Taft with the information that it be investigated by the war department. "All the discharged troops who tell the truth about the affair," said the senator, "will certainly be protected by the government."

Neither the senate committee on military affairs nor the war department has received any official report regarding the alleged confession of the discharged negro soldier.

Senator Overman said that tomorrow he will insist that the senate committee on military affairs summon the former soldier who is alleged to have made a confession to Washington to testify.

San Antonio, Tex., March 18.—The judge advocate in the trial of Major Penrose has ordered D. C. Gray, the negro taken into astody by the Galveston police brought to this city as a witness in the trial of Major Penrose by court-martial. Major Penrose refused to discuss the alleged confession.

Capt. Edgar Macklin said there were two negroes and named Gray in Co. C of the 25th infantry, but none that he knew of in Co. B. The negroes in Co. C were brothers, Joseph and George W. Gray.

BURTON SAYS HE WILL GO AFTER THE PRESIDENT

Former Kansas Senator Says He Will Start a Newspaper and Devote His Time to Making Some Disclosures Relative to the Way the Government is Run.

St. Louis, Mo., March 18.—Joseph H. Burton, formerly United States Senator from Kansas, who has been in jail at Ironton, Mo., since October 22, and whose prison term expires next Friday, is going to start a newspaper at his home in Abilene, Kan., for the sole purpose he asserts, of "giving the President hell."

Burton says he will have some amazing things to say about Roosevelt and the way in which the wheels are lubricated and run at Washington.

Friends of the ex-statesman, who was convicted of having appeared before Washington departments in the interest of a St. Louis get-rich-quick concern say that he has good financial backing. The paper will be a weekly and will be called "The Home Rule." Burton was sentenced at the termination of his second trial here to six months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $2,500. In accordance with a Federal statute concerning good behavior he has been granted a respite of one month. He will not be kept in jail to serve out the fine but it will be held over him as a civil judgment.

When told that an assertion to this effect had been made at the St. Louis Federal Building, Burton said: "I am glad to learn of this. But if a decision had been made to keep me in jail longer to serve out the fine I would have had to stay because I have not the money available to pay it. I would not allow friends to pay it."

When asked what he expects to do when he gets back home, Burton said: "I feel that I owe it
